

BABA FARID UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

As per notification session 2017, candidate must have passed 10+1 and 10+2 examination form Punjab. However, some category(s) are exempted from this condition.

Para 11 (IV) is reproduced as under:

“Children/wards/dependents (whose parents are not alive) of those military/para-military forces personnel who were born in territory of Punjab as per their service record at the time of entry into service. “

In this regard, the certificate to be produced under exemption 11 (IV) in the prospectus is given in the specimen form which reads that “..... candidates/wards/dependents (whose parents are not alive) of those military/para-military forces personnel who were born in State of Punjab.....”

It is worth mentioning that notification for the session 2017 is same as that of session 2016 for the particular category of above said exemption clause. In the prospectus for session 2016, the specimen for the certificate to be produced for the exemption is that Children/wards/dependents (whose parents are not alive) of those military/para-military forces personnel who belongs to State of Punjab as per their service record at the time of entry into service.

In view of the above, for the convenience of the candidates regarding exemption certificate as per the format given in the prospectus NEET 2017 and available on the university website, it should be read as BELONGS/BORN in State of Punjab.
