Welcome Message

Dear IADVLites ,

On behalf of the Organising team , you are cordially invited to CUTICON 2023, the 49th Annual Conference of IADVL (Punjab, Chandigarh and Himachal Pradesh) which is being organised on 25th and 26th November at Guru Gobind Singh Medical College , Faridkot. It will give us immense pleasure and honor to host you in the holy city of Sheikh Baba Farid Ji.

The theme for the conference is “SKININTELLIGENCE - Integrating Dermatology with Artificial Intelligence and Technology” and we have diligently worked to curate an academic experience enriched with newer technologies and artificial intelligence for seamless integration into our everyday clinical practice. Afterall, “Dreams come true when you have the courage to pursue them”.

We are graciously anticipating your presence and active participation at this event.

With warm regards,
Team CUTICON 2023.

PLACES TO VISIT

Gurdwara Tilla Baba Farid

This is situated in Faridkot City near Qila Mubarak. Once Baba Sheikh Farid, a Great Sufi Saint, was passing through Faridkot City (known as Mokalhar at that time). Raja Mokalsi's soldiers enslaved Baba Farid for Faridkot Fort's construction. Baba Farid's floating earth basket over head amazed Raja, who sought forgiveness. Baba Ji forgave him and meditated 40 days at Gurdwara Tilla . Shabad kirtan is recited here daily and langar is also served every day to visitors and the poor visiting the Gurdwara. More than 100 Holy Hymns of Baba Ji have been incorporated in the Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji.

Hussainiwala border, Ferozpur

Located at 40km from Faridkot, National Martyrs Memorial Hussainiwala depicts an irrepressible revolutionary spirit of three National Martyrs namely S Bhagat Singh, Rajguru and Sukhdev who smilingly embraced martyrdom for the motherland. Every evening the silence is ruptured by clattering and thunderclap of heavy boots of Indian BSF Jawans who equalize their counter part Pakistani Rangers for the retreat ceremony done for the de-hoisting of the national flags of both countries with full honour and respect. Pay Tributes to the immortal sons of Mother India at this site. We will remain beholden for their role in getting us Independence. Their passion to die for the motherland will always inspire the countrymen. India's oldest train Punjab Mail ends here.

Anglo- war Museum, Ghall Khurd.

located just 40 km from Faridkot city ,Anglo-Sikh war memorial at Ferozeshah, Ferozepur was built to honour the soldiers who died fighting against British army at Chillianwala. The monument has collections of murals, portraits and paintings depicting battlefield made by renowned painters Jaswant Singh and Kirpal Singh. The bronze carved quotes on Cunningham's history; the Anglo-Sikh war weapons donated by the Punjab government from the Patiala Museum, is displayed in the Memorial

Darbar Ganj

This beautiful bungalow is a well laid out garden place. All the rooms are finished in the most modern style. The guests from the sisterly states used Darbar Ganj for stay. The building has now been converted into Circuit House.

Saragarhi Memorial, Ferozpur Cant

Battle of Saragarhi

Located 30 km from Faridkot., Saragarhi Memorial Gurudwara has been built in the memory of 21 Sikh soldiers of the 36 Sikh Regiment who fell in heroic defence of Fort Saragarhi in Wazirstan on September 12, 1897, while defending the fort against an attack of ten thousand Pathans. The Pathans asked the Sikh soldiers to surrender but they preferred to die fighting. The memorial Gurdwara at Ferozpur was built by the Army Authorities to honour these brave soldiers. The “kesari movie” was based on this .

The Golden Temple

Located at 120 km from Faridkot, shri Harimandir Sahib is one of the holiest sites in Sikhism. It has a square plan with four entrances, and a circumambulation path around the pool. The four entrances symbolises the Sikh belief in equality and all people are welcome into their holy place. The temple was completed by the fourth Sikh Guru, Guru Ram Das, in 1577. Thousands of devotees visit here daily to pay their tributes.
