Dear Friends,

It gives me immense pleasure and proud to announce that Department of Forensic Medicine & Toxicology, Guru Gobind Singh Medical College, Faridkot is hosting 13th annual conference of Punjab Academy of Forensic Medicine & Toxicology (PAFMAT) and CME on “Role of Registered Medical Practitioner in sexual jurisprudence” on 11.09.2015 .

With day by day increase in sex related crimes, it is imperative that medical fraternity, judiciary and investigating agencies should update their knowledge with recent amendments in the law and related technological advancements. Due to shortage of Forensic experts in India, most of Medico legal work is being assigned to General Registered Medical Practitioner and Specialists of other fields.

Focus of conference is to address these issues for the effectiveness of Indian investigation system related with sex related heinous crime so as to meet the ends of justice. With great enthusiasm the organizing committee invites you to participate in academic gala and share your valuable thoughts. We promise you, an environment of scientific interaction, socializing, networking and above all learning at the Holy land of Sufi saint Baba Farid - The Faridkot.

I extend my warm invitation to all delegates to make this event a Grand Success.

Dr. Rajiv Joshi
